To Whom It May Concern:

I am sending this letter of support for Dr. Artur Jurczyszyn of Krakow, Poland, to hold the 2024 ISA Meeting in Krakow.

Dr. Jurczyszyn has a good deal of experience in organizing medical meetings including international events. He is also a leader in Poland and has a lot of support from his colleagues in the field.

Krakow is a very interesting city in which to hold an international meeting. It has a long history of great importance over the years. The Jagiellonian University Medical College is one of the older and well-known institutions in Europe.

I strongly recommend both Dr. Jurczyszyn and Krakow as the organizer and site of the ISA Meeting in 2024.

Sincerely,

Robert A. Kyle, MD, MACP
